Benedictine Sisters (Sacred Heart Monastery, Dickinson, ND)

Congregation Website: <https://sacredheartmonastery.com/>

Affiliated Schools:

- Fort Berthold Reservation, North Dakota: Sacred Heart School

Notes: In 1910, sisters from St. Joseph's Convent (now Monastery) in St. Marys, PA were sent to Fort Berthold, ND. In 1916, the sisters living in North Dakota established an independent community, which moved in 1920 to a motherhouse in Garrison, ND. In 1967, they moved again to Sacred Heart Monastery in Dickinson, ND. In historic records this community is often referred to as the Garrison Benedictines.

Benedictine Sisters (St. Joseph's Monastery, St. Marys, PA)

Affiliated Schools:

- Fort Berthold Reservation, North Dakota: Sacred Heart School

Notes: St. Joseph's Monastery in St. Marys, PA, was North America's first Benedictine convent. The Monastery closed in 2014 when the Benedictine Sisters of Elk County dissolved, and the sisters joined other Benedictine communities. At present, it is not known if any archival materials for the congregation exist.

Benedictine Sisters (St. Scholastica Monastery, Fort Smith, AR)

Congregation Website: <https://www.stscho.org/about-us/>

Affiliated Schools:

Archives
Province of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, Third Order Regular
P.O. Box 40
Loretto, PA 15940

Affiliated Schools:

- Clontarf, Minnesota: St. Paul's Industrial School

Notes: The bishop of the Diocese of St. Paul asked the Franciscan Brothers of Brooklyn to staff the school in Clontarf. When the brothers arrived, they did so under the obedience of the bishop of St. Paul and elected a superior, establishing a new congregation independent of the Brothers in Brooklyn. In 1895, the Brothers in Clontarf moved to Spaulding, Nebraska where they were under the obedience of the bishop of the Diocese of Omaha. About 1910, they joined the Franciscan community in Loretto, Pennsylvania and together they became the Franciscan Friars of the Third Order Regular (Province of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus).

Missionaries of the Precious Blood (United States Province)

Congregation Website: <https://cpps-preciousblood.org/>

Affiliated Schools:

- Banning, California: St. Boniface Indian Industrial School
- Rensselaer, Indiana: St. Joseph's Normal School for Indian Boys

Notes: In 1890, the bishop of Monterey and Los Angeles asked Fr. Florian Hahn, C.P.P.S. to serve as administrator of St. Boniface Indian Industrial School at Banning, CA. Hahn was a member of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, but he served at the school under the direction of the bishop, rather than his religious community. In 1902, he became a priest for the Diocese of Monterey and Los Angeles, severing his ties with the Missionaries of the Precious Blood community. The Missionaries of the Precious Blood have some records about Fr. Hahn, but they do not have records related to his work at the school.
